DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 3-27, 29, 30, 32, and 33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Simonetti.

Simonetti shows that two databases (customer database and distribution database) could be combined into a single table by adding two columns for storing the information specifying the distribution center and regional center to database table 10. It should be noted that database 20 which includes one record for each order placed in the present example would be expected to have many more records than database 10 which, contains one record per city. Combining the two databases would provide a single database (automated means) that could be more efficiently searched; however, the duplication of the information from the smaller database 20 in the large customer database 10 would significantly increase the memory or disk space needed to store the database. It should be noted that all customers have an ID (this includes distributors and suppliers). A known route associated with your customer ID is considered to be a predetermined setting. The ordering means are independent from the route determining means. The routes are specified, identified, and separated by nodes. Part of any one given route has a supply part and a final delivery part, which are separated by nodes.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 11/28/06 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant has made no assertions of a claim limitation not found in the prior art. Applicant has identified an item in the prior art, which is not in the claims. This is not relevant because of the "comprising" language of the claims.
